MISSIONARY'S REPORT.

Dear Brethren: I am very thankful to God that He has permitted me to be present with you all once more in an Association. With the honorable work conferred upon me in our last Association, I have endeavored to discharge my duty to the best of my ability. One sad fact I desire to state to this Association, is the lamentable cry which I hear throughout our district, among the churches, for good preachers. This difficulty, I find, is the non-spirit work among the leaders. Furthermore, I am sustained in my remarks by the members of my churches. Dear brethren, I find the true Gospel of Jesus Christ is very much demoralized by those claiming themselves to be members and really are not. I have visited every church directly or indirectly within the bounds of this Association. Let me say to you, that during these four years of Missionary labor, I have fared harder and worked harder to convert their minds to sustain the missionary cause than ever before.

The day that the Union Association decides to do away with missionary work, then they may decide that they have made null and void the Association. I speak this from experience; I say it emphatically, without a man in the field our work is dead. What is every man's business is no man's business. Dear brethren, I am ready to spend and be spent in the cause of Christ. Allow me, now, to present to you my resignation, as I have heretofore. You have, perhaps, younger and better men who can serve you much better than I can. The Sabbath schools are dark. Only a few brethren are interested in Sabbath school work.

In Presbytery at New Hope Church, Crenshaw county, Harvey Anderson and myself ordained for Deacon, one Rufus Harrison. In Presbytery with C. P. Fountain, of White Baptist Church, Elder Long, of Pine Top, and C. Travis, of Greenville, we ordained Jasper Cottrell to the ministry of the First Colored Baptist Church. I have spent four months in this work; Preached 20 sermons; gave 21 lectures, traveled 1,100 miles; raised $18.80; gave five sermons to the First Colored Baptist Church of Greenville; 9 were converted during a revival and added to the church. I have baptized three converts, and administered the Lord's supper. For stationery and other expenses belonging to the Association, the whole is $79 and some cents.

Respectfully submitted,

ELDER J. NICHOLS, Missionary.

ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee, to whom was referred the subject of intemperance, beg leave to report: We believe that of all the evils that oppress human beings, intemperance is one of the greatest. It has caused more widows and orphans, more naked and hungry children, and more insanity, than all the wars combined. We further urge all those who may read this report, to abandon the use of intoxicating drinks. How many times have mothers looked around their firesides at their children, who had been deprived of an education, deprived of sufficient food and clothing to make them comfortable, for no cause save that of their fathers who had gone down into a drunkard's grave.

REV. D. LOVELESS,
 " J. F. CARMICHAEL,
 " C. T. BECOATS,
 " A. LEWIS,
 Committee.

This report was discussed by Revs. S. M. Reeves, R. Ingram and D. Boyd and then passed.

ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We, your Committee on Foreign Missions, beg leave to submit the following report:

Whereas, we, as Missionary Baptists, deem this subject one of vital importance to us, and

Whereas, we owe it to ourselves, we owe it to our principles, we owe it to our mother-land; not only to our mother-land, but to our God, who has said: "Go ye into all the world and preach my Gospel to every creature." Therefore be it

Resolved, That we disburse our mites so as the Lord may say, "well done, thou good and faithful servants; thou hast been faithful over a few things, come up higher, I will make you ruler over many."

J. W. SMITH,
 J. N. YOUNG,
 G. K. CARMICHAEL,
 R. HARRISON,
 Committee.

ON MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

We, your Committee on Ministerial Education, beg leave to submit the following report:

Whereas, we know that education is the great lever by which we are to elevate our race from the thralldom of sin and ignorance, and, whereas, the knowledge of the scripture is essential to a Christian minister as much as the apostle to the Gentiles, who urged on the minister to study to show thyself a workman of God, rightly dividing the word of truth;

And whereas, the prosperity of the church, both spiritually and financially, depends on the scriptural knowledge of the ministers, and whereas, the ministers are responsible for the scriptural training of the church, therefore be it

Resolved, That we, as ministers of Christ, do all in our power to foster education among our young ministers, by contributing to the cause of Ministerial Education.

Resolved, further, That every member of the churches composing this Association, be requested to send 10 cents annually for Ministerial Education.

REV. WM. SCOTT,
 " S. M. REEVES,
 " H. C. CRUM,
 Committee.

This report was discussed by Rev. S. M. Reeves and D. Boyd, and passed.

EXECUTIVE BOARD.

We, your Committee, recommend that the next meeting of the Executive Board be held with Spring Hill Baptist Church, Monterey, Ala., on Friday before the second Lord's day in June, 1886.

REV. J. M. MOSS,
 " A. GOULD,
 Committee.

1. At every annual meeting of this Association, immediately after the delegates' names are enrolled tellers shall be appointed by the Chair, and the Association shall proceed to choose from among their number a Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer, who are to hold their offices until new ones are chosen.

2. The Moderator shall take the chair every day at the hour to which the Association shall have adjourned on the preceding day; shall immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a quorum shall cause the minutes of the preceding day to be read.

3. He shall preserve order and decorum; may speak on points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal from the Association by any two members, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the Association.

4. He shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

5. Questions shall be distinctly put; those voting in the affirmative shall say aye, and those of contrary opinion, no. If the Moderator doubts, or a division be called for, the delegates shall divide; those voting in the affirmative shall first arise from their seats, and afterwards those voting in the negative.

6. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise specially directed by the Association.

7. In all cases of election, the Moderator may vote; in other cases, he shall not vote, unless the body be equally divided; in that event he shall give the casting vote. He may speak on any question, provided he shall call some other member to the chair while he is speaking.

8. The Clerk shall enroll the names of the delegates, minute the proceedings of the body, and perform such other duties as the Association may direct.

9. The Treasurer shall receive, account for, and pay out all moneys belonging to this body according to the instructions of the Association, and perform such other duties as the Association may direct.

10. When any member is about to speak or deliver any matter to the Association, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address the Moderator, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personalities.

11. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgress the rules of the Association, the Moderator shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and the Association shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the Chair shall be submitted to; if the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed; otherwise, he shall not be permitted to proceed in case any member object, without leave of the Association.

12. When two or more members rise at once, the Moderator shall name the one who is to speak first.

13. No member shall speak more than once on the same question, without leave of the Association, unless he be the mover, proposer or introducer of the matter pending; in which case he shall be permitted to speak in reply, but not until every member wishing to speak has spoken.

14. Every member who shall be in the house when a question is put, shall give his vote, unless the Association, for special reason, excuse him.

15. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated by the Chair, or, if in writing, handed to the Moderator and read aloud, before debate.

16. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Chair or any member desire it.

17. After a motion is stated by the Chair, or read aloud by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the body, but may be withdrawn, by leave of the Association, at any time before a decision or amendment.

18. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be entertained but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a certain day, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are arranged; and no motion to postpone to a certain day, to commit, or to postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall again be allowed during the session.

19. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except the Association be engaged in voting.

20. On a previous question there shall be no debate. All incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

21. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; its effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the Association to a direct vote upon amendments reported by committee, if any, upon pending amendments, and then the main question.

22. No motion, or a proposition on a different subject from that under consideration, shall be admitted under color of amendment.

23. When a motion has once been made and carried in the affirmative, or negative, it shall be in order for any member of the majority to move a reconsideration thereof on the same or succeeding business day, and such motion shall take precedence over all other questions, except a motion to adjourn.

24. No member shall absent himself from the house without leave of the Moderator, or leave the meeting without leave of the Association.

25. Should any member of this Association absent himself before the close of the session, without permission of the body, he shall be marked in the minutes as absent without leave.
